WITH nine-tenths of his party against

But who is right? We are inclined to believe the statement of the Minnesota man, for since that "reference" we are a trifle wary of TOWNSHEND.

Fon a false, delusive and hypocritical platform commend us to that of the New York Democracy, late in convention assembled. Indorsing SAMUEL J. TILDEN as a great, good and much-abused patriot, is one of the strong (!) points in that platform, and one which, no doubt, will be seriously considered by the citizens of the Empire State.

THE Lancaster (Pa.) TILDEN Club are holding correspondence with the Pittsburg TILDEN Club for the purpose of making arrangements to have a good band of music to accompany both delegations to Cincinnati at the holding of the convention. Those Tildenites are determined that their man shall not be defeated from lack of NOTWITHSTANDING his repeated "Your "candidate I cannot be!" SEYMOUR has Presidential itchings. It was a shrewd move on his part, and entirely unsolicited, to write to Senator JOHNSTON, of the Senate Agricultural Committee, a letter in reference to the cattle plague. The permanship was of a bold and vigorous style, indicating the man of health and nerve, and its objectwell, that nomination!

UNCLE DICK BISHOP says the Democracy of Ohio made a great mistake last year in not renominating him for Governor, as he, and he only, could carry Hamilton county, which was the battlefield of the State. Uncle DICK is a TIL-DEN man, and thinks if the New Yorker were given the head of the ticket and he (BISHOP) the tail, there would be no doubt of its winning. But, then, the old gentleman is prejudiced.

JERRY BLACK says that "the movement "for a third term means simply a con-"spiracy to wipe out the Constitution." Well, this is not quite as bad as the seceders. They not only wished to wipe out the Constitution, but also our common country. Surely, JERRY cannot forget that. And if we remember aright, he was Attorney-General about that time, and legally assisted these same seceders, but the "Third Termer quashed it all. How is that?

MR. DOWNEY AND THE IMMORTALS. Poets come from the West. The West gave JOAQUIN MILLER to the world, and it was on the Pacific slope that BRET HARTE learned to love nature, and blossomed into a full-blown poet. The West has now Philadelphia News. given us another poet, the Hon. STEPHEN W. Downey, of Wyoming Territory. The free and paid-up subscribers to that useful though usually staid and solemn journal, the Congressional Record, were a little surprised yesterday morning to find fifteen pages of its space devoted to a poetical production. The first impression of those who picked up the Record was that GILBERT and SULLIVAN, aided by the "Pirates of and Sullivan, aided by the Firstes of Blaine has more friends than Grant.—[Hart-"Penzance," and supported by "H. M. S. ford Courant. "Pinafore," had captured the Government, seized the Government Printing Office and made use of the Record for the public ation of the libretto of a new opera. Upon rivals for a Presidential nomination.—[Harrisburg Telegraph. glancing over the measured Homeric lines. however, this impression soon vanished. and confidence in the security of the Government was restored. It proved to be nothing more serious than a poetical speech of Mr. Downey's smuggled in under a "leave to print." It is probable that the objections made in both the House and the Senate to the publication of such compositions as Mr. CONGER suggested, were prompted to some extent by jealousy and mvy of the rising poet, and it is to be hoped that his first effort will not be so coldly reseived as to discourage him from future flights. As Mr. Downey, who evidently intends to dramatize the production, prudently had it copyrighted before publication, so as to reserve all rights, we are anable to republish it, but upon careful perusal can recommend it as good, wholesome poetry, which certainly can do no harm. Mr. Downey having come from the wild West, where men have not become so callouse by the deceptions and vanities of life as is possible that he may intend the produc-tion to be used in his Territory as cam-paign literature. The publication of this poem or cantata, entitled "The Immortals," is not the only surprise prepared for his aswas the same genius that conceived the idea No. 118 BROADWAY, NEW YORK, April 20, 1880 of introducing the apostics' creed into a resolution—and it was in support of this resolution, which provides for an appropriation of $500,000 to embellish the walls of centre per support of the set of this company, amounting to ONE HUN. the Capitol with scenes illustrating the birth, life and death of Christ, that "The "Immortals" was written. Mr. Downey "Immortals" was written. Mr. Downey "BRAKE DE KAY, Secretary. has dedicated the work to the Congress of the United States, and Congress will prove No. 115 Bloodway, New York. the privilege of publishing more of his productions in the same way. The Committee on Printing, it is said, will have the line, "Poetical contributions will invariably be earning, payable at the Central Trust Company of the Company itself to be ungrateful if it deprives him of "Postical contributions will invariably be carrings payable at the Central Trust Company on the "rejected," placed at the head of the columns of the Record, showing that they have no mind above tariff, appropriation bills and other important but very dry and uninteresting subjects. Mr. Downey, however, will find his reward in the recognition

A FOUL ORGAN. The St. Louis Republican (Dem.) uses very NOTICE. harsh language in its comments upon Mr. ROBERT TODD LINCOLN, son of the martyr President, who made a speech at the GRANT demonstration in Chicago last week. Among other things in his address, Mr. LINCOLN api3-dimay1 son before the Grant Club of Cincinnati demolishes the delusive theories of the anti-third-termers by its lucid, sensible and for-cible arguments, and we commend it to the attention of the New York Tribune et al.

Townshend, of Hilinois, says that $63,-500,000 are annually required to pay pensoners. Dunnell, of Minnesota, says it who is right.

For thus plainly and truthfully speaking. Mr. Lincoln is maligned and abused most bitterly. He is charged with being "willing to celebrate his father's assassination NO CURE, NO PAY, by presiding over a political pow-wow," and with being so totally deprayed that he could see nothing inappropriate in the "utilization of a parent's bloody taking-off for partisan purposes." These and other similar foul remarks grace or disgrace the utilization of a parent's bloody taking-off columns of the St. Louis sheet; and if a SPECIAL NOTICE. strong hand should not be needed at the helm of Government a corrective is certainly needed in the editorial columns of the St. Louis Republican.

THE Anti-Third-Termers make a special point in inveighing against the inefficiency of Grant's administration and its weak ness in foreign and domestic affairs. The National Convention which at Cincinnati nominated Governor HAYES for the Presidency, unanimously passed the following among the resolutions adopted by them:

Resolved, That the National Administration perits commendation for its honorable work in the management of domestic and foreign affairs, and President Grant deserves the continued and lasting gratitude of the American people for his patriotism and his eminent ser-vices in war and peace.

Will the New York Tribune please notice!

THE Cincinnati Gazette in its issue of Wednesday morning last says: dishonesty or jobbery. He has occupied

GRANT has never been accused of personal sitions where he could have speculated to advantage and made millions if money had been his aim; but he never did use his position for any such purpose. People, therefore, who fight the third-term business should keep their heads level lest they get out of the frying-pan

This is significant, but none the less true There has never been a President of this country more pure in personal reputation than General GRANT. And it illy becomes those of his own political persuasion to abuse him in the scurrilous manner so suggestive of Democracy. "People, therefore, who fight the third-term business should keep their heads level lest they get out of the fryingpan into the fire," says the Gazette; and we would advise certain gentlemen to take the

I can only speak for Georgia. If Tilden is nominated, and General Grant is nominated by the Republicans. I believe Grant will carry leorgia by 70,000 majority,—[Robert Toombs.

Grant has no bureau to circulate documents by the cartload, lauding him and slandering other candidates. But the people are for him, and this being true, the tricks of politicians and the grinding of the machine will be in vain.—[Chicago Inter-Ocean (Rep.).

There is not so much brag and bluster, ound and fury, about the canvais made in behair of General Grant's candidature as are exhibited in some other quarters, but every day the indications multiply that the people are with him, and that he will again be called to lead the Republican party to victory.
